PRODUCT
CATALOG 2024

With experience in the manufacturing over 25 years in bathroom fittings industry, Kerro is becoming an industry leader in providing quality bathing products by adding evocative styles and ground-breaking technologies to turn your bath into inspiration. At Kerro Faucet, our major aim is at providing bathing products that are solely focused on technologies that save water and provide better health and hygiene. We make use of the latest technology to provide a better water saving, hygienic and easy to use. Most of our products are produced through core shooting techniques which provide best in class quality with minimum scope of error. We operate on three key business principles of 'Capability, Quality, and Reliability' that have earned us a reputation for delivering superb quality and 98% on-time delivery. Our passion for our craft allows us to shift speed and focus on new technologies to suit our clients. Leveraging our expertise as manufacturers, we drive business transformation and position our clients for a sustainable future.

LIFE-50
